NEWS and MEDIA ALERT

Paws in the Park dog festival to benefit Leo's Helping Paws, Inc.

Canines and all who love them are invited to attend the Paws in the Park dog festival to be held on September 28, 2019 from 11 am until 3 pm at Lititz Springs Park, Lititz, PA to raise money to continue the mission of Leo's Helping Paws, Inc. The festival is a community fundraising event to include activities, vendors, contests, dog rescue groups, food trucks, demonstrations and so much more.

- WHO: All dogs large to small from Great Danes to Chihuahuas, dog owners/families, vendors, sponsors, canine rescue organizations, the general community
- WHAT: The Paws in the Park dog festival is a community event for dogs and all who love them to raise awareness and funds to support the mission of Leo's Helping Paws Inc. There will be so much to enjoy for all who attend whether you have a furry friend or not . Our sponsors and vendors will have plenty of pet-friendly products for purchase and food trucks will be available. Canines can sign up (with their human of course!) to participate in dog games, contests and activities.
- WHERE: Lititz Springs Park, 18 N. Broad St, Lititz, PA 17543
- WHEN: September 28, 2019 from 11:00 am until 3:00 pm

Leo's Helping Paws Inc Mission:

Leo's Helping Paws provides financial Assistance to dog rescue groups in Pennsylvania and neighboring states, for veterinary care, with a primary focus on puppy mill dogs, in addition to abused and neglected dogs, and to educate the community about puppy mills. To aid in this mission, the Corporation may make grants from time to time to other non-profit organizations. We are an all-volunteer 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization.
